And at Reading.

Conditions of Sale.

1.—The highest accepted bidder shall be the Purchaser. If any dispute arise between the bidders, the lot to be put up again at the bidding immediately preceding the dispute, or the Auctioneer may declare the Purchaser.

2.—The advance in the bidding to be regulated by the Auctioneer, who is to be the sole arbiter in any matter of dispute. He also reserves to himself the right to refuse any bidding.

3.—The Purchaser to pay (if required) a deposit of five shillings in the pound or more in part payment, such deposit to be a general deposit on the whole or any of the lots of such buyers. Every Purchaser is to give his name and place of abode.

4.—Each and every lot shall at the fall of the hammer be considered as delivered, and no lot or lots can be removed until the whole amount of the Purchaser's account shall be paid in full; and payment is to be made to the Auctioneer's Clerk appointed to deliver. To prevent inaccuracy in delivery and inconvenience in settlement of the purchase, no lot can be removed during the time of sale. As the whole is on view, no warranty is given, or to be implied by the description in the catalogue.

5.—The lots must be paid for and cleared away from the premises, with all faults, imperfections and errors of description before 4 o'clock p.m., on MONDAY, the 12th of May, 1919, and no allowance whatever shall be made for misdescription or errors of whatsoever nature. Any damage caused by removal, or otherwise, must be made good by the person committing the same; principals being considered responsible for the acts of their servants.

6.—The Auctioneers reserve the right of withdrawing any lot or lots or portion of a lot, or of placing two or more lots together, should that course be deemed advisable, also of making an allowance for the whole or any portion of a lot not delivered from any cause whatsoever—at the same rate at which such lot was purchased and inasmuch as Messrs. NICHOLAS act only as Agents for the Vendor, they shall not be considered personally responsible for any default on the part of either the Purchaser or Vendor.

7.—Any lots uncleared by the appointed time, agreeably with the conditions, will be forfeited and may be resold or removed and warehoused at the expense of the Purchaser, any deficiency arising from resale, together with housing charges, and all attendant expenses, including sale foreman's charge of 5s. per day shall be made good by the Purchaser.

LASTLY.—On failure of complying with the above conditions, or non-performance of all or part of them, the defaulters shall forfeit their deposits, and the Auctioneer or Clerk of sale shall be at liberty to take such steps as may be deemed necessary to bring the transaction to a close; and if a resale be effected, either by public auction or private contract, all loss and expense shall devolve upon the defaulter at this sale.

N.B.—NO LOTS WILL BE TRANSFERRED.
